THE LOYOLA BRIEF

EDITOR:
MICHAEL LEVENTHAL

VOL. II NO. I
January 25, 1967

ASSOCIATE EDITOR:
MARVIN SALTZMAN

FROM THE EDITOR

This issue is the first for the Spring Semester. As was stated in our opening issue last Semester it is our desire to publish the LOYOLA BRIEF at least twice a month. It is thought that with this publication rate the BRIEF will become a regular part of Student life here at LOYOLA.

The BRIEF needs Student support to accomplish its purpose, that of making all students more aware of what is happening at their law school.

Students, both day and night alike are requested to submit newsworthy items either to your class reps or directly to the BRIEF c/o the BAR office in written format.

LET US HEAR FROM YOU.

Michael Leventhal,
Editor

GILBMAN FAMILY GROWS

No complaint filed but repeated summonses are being issued at the Arcadia home of DON (1-E) and BARBARA GILBMAN since the arrival of their adopted daughter, Dara Joy, in early November.

DON is Program Manager with Electro-Optical Systems, Inc.

INVITATIONS TO WIVES

Probably because few of them have exams, the most active law school group of all consists of the mates of Loyola's male law students -- the LOYOLA LAW STUDENTS WIVES ASSOCIATION.

The organization's 3 aims are sociability, service and educational improvement. Its $3 yearly dues are more than worth the benefits derived. Contact Nancy Nicoletti, 444 Devonshire Lane, Glendale.

LOYOLA BAR SETS SPRING DANCE

Arrangements for the Annual Spring Dance and Libel Show were announced at the monthly meeting of the Student Bar Board of Governors meeting on December 11. The event takes place on Saturday, April 8, at the LaCanada Country Club.

THE BOARD ALSO:

Heard a report from its Curriculum Committee that a new course in trial practice, for senior students, is being considered by the faculty.

Discussed the possible formulation of a student honor code regarding conduct during examinations, with a provision which would result in the disciplining of students who observed students and failed to report it.

Received a report that the Law Review Committee is studying the possibility of publishing an entire issue on a single subject rather than one with several articles each covering a different subject.

LIBRARY HOURS EXTENDED

Closing time for the law library has been advanced from 11:00 PM to Midnight on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays on a temporary experimental basis. MR. RANK, Librarian, announced that the new schedule is in response to requests from night school students. A count will be made to determine the number of students using the library during the extended hour period. If the volume is not appreciable the former closing time will be resumed.

A WORD FROM THE PRESIDENT

In the month of November, we attended a Conference of Student Organizations of California Law Schools. Our hosts were the students at Boalt Hall, Berkeley. It was gratifying to meet and talk with our counterparts.

The business of the conference was directed to a discussion of 3 law school issues.

(1) A resolution favoring the issuance of the Juris Doctorate degree, unanimously adopted.

(2) A resolution setting sanctions for discriminatory hiring practices was tabled for further investigation.

(3) Student participation in the courts.

The Conference will reconvene in the Spring at U.C.L.A. LOYOLA will participate in that meeting.

Jerry Berger,
President

ST. THOMAS MORE LAW SOCIETY

At the most recent meeting of the St. Thomas More Law Society, members and invited guests heard NORMAN OLLESTAD and LAURENCE SPERBER speak on electronic eavesdropping. MR. OLLESTAD was formerly an F.B.I. agent and an attorney with the Department of Justice. MR. SPERBER is a counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union.

The Society's general purpose is to sponsor discussions in which ethical, moral, social and political problems of interest to the legal profession are aired.

According to BURLEIGH BREWER, President of the organization, a January meeting on the "Right to a Fair Trial versus Freedom of the Press" issue is now being planned.

If you are interested in the Society and its work contact BURLEIGH BREWER for additional information. Meanwhile watch the School Bulletin Boards for further information on their meetings.
